

AN OCCASION FOR THE ARTS Celebrations

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2010

Presented by the Williamsburg Economic Development Authority with Colonial Williamsburg

---

• 7am - 3pm "Plein Air" Williamsburg Quick Create

Plein Air artists will be creating art, in the tradition of French Impressionists; painting from life in out-of-doors ("en plein air") capturing the ever changing colors and light and shadows, throughout the Colonial Williamsburg Historic Area, Merchants Square, and the historic campus of William & Mary. This art will be offered for sale on Duke of Gloucester Street in front of Barnes and Noble from 4-5:30 pm

• 9am - 5pm Colonial Williamsburg Historic Trades
Complimentary Sampling

Explore the link between today's contemporary artisans and their 18th century forbears. Obtain free tickets at the DeWitt Wallace Museum and AOFTA information booths for admission to the blacksmith, weaver, cabinetmaker, shoemaker and printer/binder.

• 10am - 4pm Contemporary Artisans Demonstrations

Artisans demonstrate and sell their work. Located on the lawn of Colonial Williamsburg's DeWitt Wallace Museum at Francis & Henry Streets.

• 10am - 7pm Colonial Williamsburg museums free entry

• 4pm - 5:30pm "Plein Air" Artist "Show and Sell"

Enjoy cash bar and refreshments while browsing and purchasing the "plein air" art created that same day. Located on Duke of Gloucester Street in front of Barnes and Noble. A perfect pre-Symphonia event!

• 7pm Williamsburg Symphonia Under the Stars: John Pizzarelli

Cafe Carlyle Jazz virtuoso John Pizzarelli joins The Williamsburg Symphonia, under the direction of Janna Hymes, Music Director and Conductor, for an evening of jazz and pop music. Acoustic duo Me & Jo opens the event at 6:00 pm. Located in Merchants Square - event opens at 5:30 pm.

---

RETURN SUNDAY, OCTOBER 3RD FOR THE 42ND ANNUAL

AN OCCASION FOR THE ARTS

Enjoy a day with the family browsing the art show exhibits and selecting a piece of art from one of our exceptional artists for your home. Help your children create a masterpiece of their own at the Youth Art exhibit and activities area. Relax and take in some of our performances at one or more of our stages. Sample good food and wine! 10am - 5pm.